

Scoil an Spioraid Naoimh, Cailíní

Policy Statement for Absences from Scoil an Spioraid Naoimh(Cailíní)

See Strategies for Attendance Policy also.

Children should always have a note when returning to school following an absence.

This note should be in the child's journal or if not the page on which it is written should be sent to the records section, Bean Uí Dhuibhír, Room 1, for filing.

Scoil an Spioraid Naoimh has an excellent attendance record, generally above 96% in NEWB Returns. An absence of twenty days or more will be reported to the N.E.W.B.

The Board of Management and staff of Scoil an Spioraid Naoimh, (Cailíní) are not in favour of the practice of removing children from school for the purpose of foreign holidays.

Removing children from school for a period during the school day must always be recorded in the blue book located inside the front doors.
